INVESTMENT OBJECTIVES

Aditum Fixed Maturity Fund (“AFMF”) aims to generate a regular stream of fixed income returns and cash distributions through investments in fixed income securities and collective investment schemes to seek to achieve an attractive risk-adjusted return, whilst employing strategies to reduce price and market risk and mark-to-market volatility. The Fund will invest opportunistically on a global basis and predominantly contain sovereign and corporate fixed income securities. The investment policy of the Fund is to invest in a range of income generating assets on an anticipated “buy-and-hold” basis to seek its objective designed to mature in December 2026.

PERFORMANCE – TOTAL RETURN (%)

1M	3M	6M	1Y	3YR	S.I.*
0.11	0.22	1.06	3.65	11.96	10.45

*The performance is calculated from B (Inc) USD share class since inception 31 May 2022. The performance figures presented, including total return, are based on historical data and do not guarantee future results. Total return includes capital appreciation and any distribution made by the Fund and may be shown on a gross or net basis, subject to the methodology disclosed. Performance as stated here is capital movements plus income, which has been paid out, and added back to derive a total return. Past performance is not an indicator or guarantee of future performance. The value of shares in the fund and income received from it can go down as well as up, and investors may not get back the full amount invested. Performance may also be affected by currency fluctuations of the underlying holdings.

Use of Leverage

Investing in this fund involves a significant degree of risk due to the use of leverage. Leverage, or borrowing to invest, can amplify both gains and losses, which makes leveraged investments suitable only for investors who fully understand and are prepared to accept the potential volatility and loss. Key Risks to Consider will include market risk, increased volatility, loss of principal, interest rate risk and financial costs (leverage involves borrowing costs that may increase due to rising interest rates. These costs can erode returns and increase the risk of losses, particularly in prolonged periods of higher interest rates), liquidity risk, margin calls and forced liquidation, regulatory and tax implications. Investors should seek independent tax advice to understand regulatory and tax implications fully. Leveraged investments are generally suitable for experienced investors who are financially capable of managing the risks associated with significant losses and who have a high-risk tolerance. This fund is not recommended for conservative investors or those with a short-term investment horizon.
